A PIRATE'S LIFE FOR YOU!

or Adult

This isn't a regular company, but potential crew members will still want to know what they are getting into. Start by describing the ship and the captain. Possible things to include: Who is the captain? What kind of boss is he or she? What's the name of the ship? What part of the world does the ship sail?

Company Description:

After you have listed the traditional pirate activities, consider some other jobs. Not everyone wants to spend their days waving a sword around, but you may still want them in your crew. Are there other jobs available? For each job, list the duties and responsibilities. (You don't have to use all of the spaces provided.)
