

SONOMA COUNTY FAIR
MEGAN'S LAW SCREENING

The Sonoma County Fair is committed to the public safety of all who attend Sonoma County Fair.

In accordance with the Sonoma County Fair Policy, all entities conducting business on the fairgrounds property during the annual Sonoma County Fair will be required to conduct screening of each of that entity's employees, agents, servants, volunteers, and/or independent contractors who will be performing job-related duties on SONOMA COUNTY FAIR premises. This screening must, at a minimum, include searches for sex offender registration. Entities will certify in writing that they have conducted the required screening, and will indemnify Sonoma County Fair for any negligence arising out of or connected with their obligations pertaining to the required screening.

Any individual who is a registered sex offender and/or whose name appears on the California Department of Justice's Megan's Law database will not be eligible to work or volunteer on Sonoma County Fair premises.

For additional information on the US Department of Justice Megan's Law database, please refer to: <http://www.nsopr.gov/>. This is a free service provided by the US Department of Justice.
